

Successful sale of gas storage capacities on 11 March

Newsletter

12 March 2009

With 22 companies registered, the auction held on 11 March 2009 for 2 TWh in storage capacities by Storengy attracted considerable interest.

This sale, opened to all market players, dealt with capacities proposed by Storengy new commercial offer which will enter into force the 1st April 2009. It took place via a secure electronic web platform, in the present of a bailiff and a sworn IT expert.

The totality of the storage capacities, 2 TWh, has been subscribed by 13 different companies, for the period of the 1st April 2009 until the 31st March 2010, at prices contained between 5,10 and 9,35 euros per MWh and per year, according to different storage groups.

From 1st April 2009, Storengy will have 24 clients, that is to say two more than last year.

Storage groups	Serene Nord	Serene Sud	Sediane
Price (euros/ MWh per year)	7,40	5,10	9,35